

Signs of Hope: Finding Jubilee in a Fractured World

May 1-2

(Chicago & livestream)

MORE INFO

worldcathweek.depaul.edu

In his recent Spes Non Confundit ("Hope does not disappoint," Romans 5:5), Pope Francis declares hope the central message of the 2025 Jubilee year. In this conference, speakers from varied disciplines look for signs of hope amid mounting global challenges that drive many to anxiety, cynicism, and despair.

KEYNOTE BY

Dylan Corbett

Founder & Executive Director
Hope Border Institute

World
Catholicism
Week 2025

 DEPAUL UNIVERSITY

Breathe (2018) by Billie Bond

BillieBondArt.com

The sculpture Breathe was inspired by the ancient Japanese art of kintsugi, a technique for repairing broken pottery with gold. Literally translating as "golden joinery," kintsugi offers a rich metaphor for hope in a fractured world.

FREE OF CHARGE

Advance Registration Required

Organized by
Center for World Catholicism and Intercultural Theology (CWCIT)

Cosponsored by Department of Catholic Studies
Department of Mission and Ministry