

TUESDAY JULY 8TH

A WEBINAR introducing

Northampton Diocese to the National Board of Catholic Women

7.30 PM

GIVING A VOICE TO CATHOLIC WOMEN

Amy Cameron and Helen Burgess

Helen Burgess, Northampton Diocesan link for the NBCW, will interview Amy Cameron, their president.

Find out what's happening and how you can get involved!

Amy works in the Diocese of Hexham & Newcastle and brings a rich background in pastoral development, adult formation, and synodal engagement, and is deeply passionate about empowering women within the Church and wider society.

She has played a leading role in coordinating synodal listening processes and promoting inclusive, mission-focused dialogue. Through her work with the NBCW, Amy supports national initiatives that give voice to Catholic women and promotes active engagement in Church life, justice, and ecumenical dialogue. She is a frequent speaker and facilitator, and continues to advocate for greater participation of women at all levels of Church decision-making.

Helen is the NBCW Diocesan link for the Northampton Diocese. In this role she is encouraging more women in the Diocese of Northampton to become involved in the NBCW especially with the recent changes in its constitution. Helen convenes the Women in the Church committee for the NBCW. In the Northampton Diocese she recently led the Women's working party at the Diocesan assembly. Helen is the Lead Chaplain at the University of Bedfordshire and in September 2025 hopes to commence PhD study relating to Women's Ministry in the Catholic Church .

To register your interest please email:
helen.burgess@northamptondiocese.org